

Shout Out!

A Huge Shout Out to Ms. Bell who is being recognized by the School District of Philadelphia for all of her hard work and dedication to the students, their family, family to families, and staff at Lawton!

Ms. Bell excels in making every space and experience such a safe space for students but also staff. She works very diligently with her team to ensure that PBIS is strong and a true example of always making sure that there is inclusiveness and equity for everyone to play a part in everything that we do.
